MahlerFest XIII

Congratulations on your award from the Colorado Council on the Arts. The lives of the people of Boulder, and indeed, lives all across the State of Colorado are greatly enriched through your artistic talents. We appreciate the importance of these gifts and recognize that whether it is visual or performance, the arts are a tremendous contribution for the well-being of any community. The arts strengthen Colorado by boosting local economies, improving education, and revitalizing grassroots communities. Their overarching reach stimulates critical thought and spawns creativity, encouraging healthy growth in individuals. Thank you for your wonderful work, and once again, congratulations.
